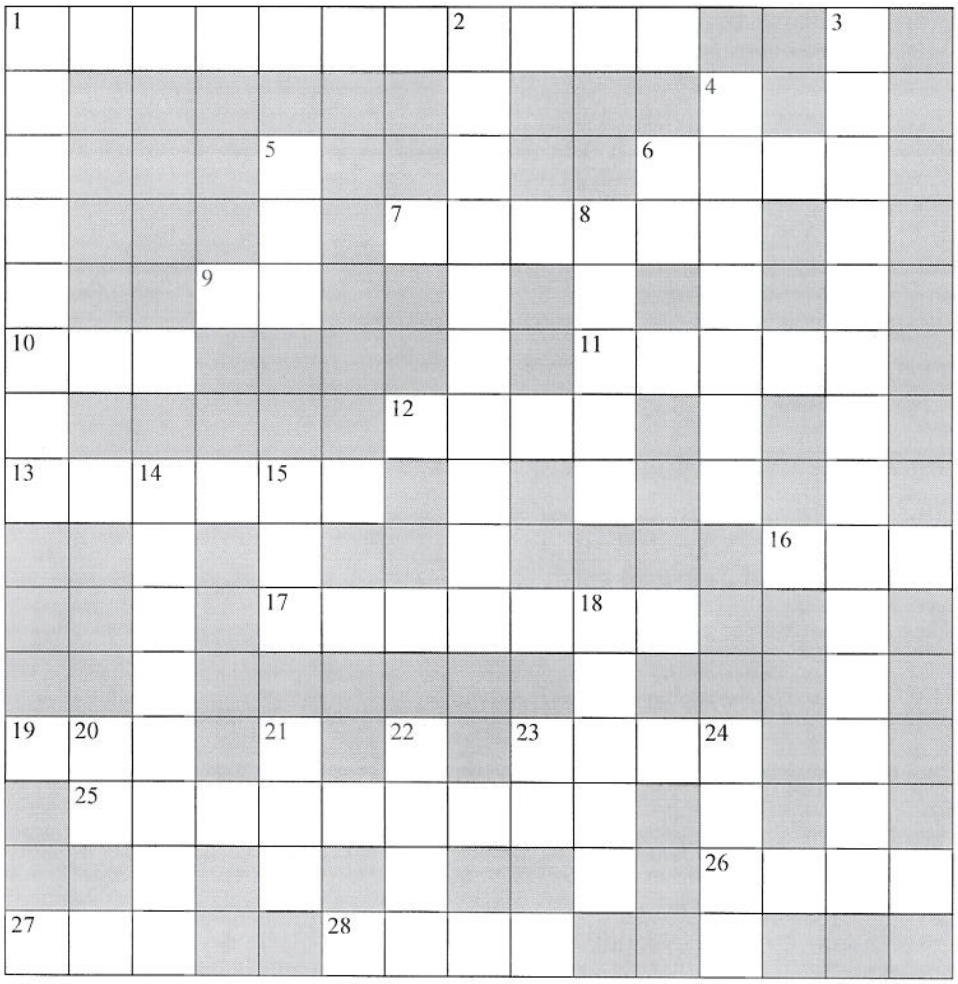
Crossword

If you have trouble with some of the answers, either look in Volume 1 of the book or ask someone you don't know – they might know the answer!

Across

1. Better late than never: Suttles got this title in 1972.
6. The ironic name of another victim of the unusual checkmate in 3 down (if you're stuck, ask Michelle).
7. Perhaps Suttles' favourite opponent.
9. We suggest this as a good way to start the game for Black (1…)
10. The proper name of Black's coolest opening.
11. Are all bishops controlled by this?
12. The clumsiest piece, so they say.
13. People will tell you this is the most important part of the board.
16. You may have to be one to play 1.b4.
17. Suttles won the Canadian Championship in this city.
19. Some say "a knight on the ___ leads to a trim." But we disagree.
23. The whole idea is to get this piece.
25. This player was distracted by the noise of the ocean.
26. The game is done, because it's ____.
27. Last name of Dutch Trick victim.
28. He fell to the bishops.

Down


1. Perhaps Suttles' most difficult opponent.
2. Suttles' favourite Lone Star State city (two words).
3. The unusual checkmate in Game 68 (two words).
4. The story started in this American city (abbrev.).
5. The winning move against Spassky (37…).
6. First two letters of Tunisian opponent's last name.
8. Can annotators say that a bad position ____?
14. Something very few losing players will say (two words).
15. That opening again!
18. The point of chess is to _____ the other guy.
20. Chess title (abbrev.)
21. One of the toughest B.C. players.
22. First "Just Plain Funny" opponent.
23. If you chicken out of the Rat, you can always switch to this defence (abbrev.)
24. Remember, it's only a ____.